

WOMEN OF THE WORLD

By Liona Boyd and Joanne Perica © 2018 Mid-Continental Music / Zena Music SOCAN

One voice at a time
Breaking the silence
Drawing a line
Rejecting the violence
We're done with the hurt
We've already paid
Everything's changing
No longer afraid

CHORUS

We're stronger than we've ever been, uh huh
We are the women of the world
Fearless like you've never seen, uh huh
We are the women of the world
We're the women, we're the women
We are the women of the world
We're the women, we're the women
We are the women of the world

Four billion souls
From each part of the earth
Today we are one
We know our own worth
Times are changing
We deserve better
Look what can happen
When we stand together

CHORUS / BRIDGE

We've always known, what we can achieve
Now is the time to turn it around.... always believe

CHORUS / VAMPS

We've come so far yeah
We are the women... oh oh, yes we are
We are the women of the world
And nothing's gonna stop us no!
Cause we are the women of the world!
